

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact: Oyuki Poletz, Program Services Librarian, (561) 544-8598, brpl@myboca.us

BOCA RATON PUBLIC LIBRARY TO HOST FINANCIAL LITERACY CLASSES
FOR MONEY SMART WEEK, MARCH 30–APRIL 6, 2019

BOCA RATON, FL (March 14, 2019) – Want to become smarter about your money? The Boca Raton Public Library is pleased to participate in the national initiative, Money Smart Week, with a series of classes to help consumers better manage their personal finances. Programs will be held all week at both locations.

“Money Smart Week is an incredible opportunity for consumers to access free advice on various areas of personal finance,” notes Sally Clark, Instructional Services. “We are proud to host our eighth year of classes and programs open to people of all ages. This year’s program features a wide variety of money management topics, including financial services, investing, estate planning for young families, college financial planning, Medicare, and tips on avoiding medical/hospital bill mistakes. We look forward to helping establish good financial habits for people of all ages in our community.” Highlights include:

Demystify Medical/Hospital Bills and Insurance Company Communication

Kenneth Klein, Manager of Human Health Advocates, shares money-saving tips to avoid common mistakes and make better choices regarding healthcare costs.

Downtown Library, 3/30, Saturday, 12:00–1:30pm

The Insider’s Guide to Financial Services and Investing

Jon Ulin, Certified Financial Planner of Ulin & Co. Wealth Management, addresses the fundamentals of managing wealth while putting today’s markets, history and human behavior into perspective.

Downtown Library: 3/30, Saturday, 2:00–3:30pm

Estate-Planning Essentials for Young Families

Attorney Anila S. Rasul discusses the basics of estate planning for families with minor children, including wills, trusts, and advance healthcare directives or powers of attorney.

Spanish River Library: 4/1, Monday, 6:30–8:00pm

College Financial Planning

Eric Greschner, Managing Partner, Regatta Research & Money Management, explains how to estimate the costs of college, and explores the pros and cons of 529 plans, Coverdale Education Savings Account, UTMA/UGMAs, and Florida Prepaid.

Spanish River Library: 4/6, Saturday, 9:00–10:00am

Mark your calendars to participate in Money Smart Week classes at the Boca Raton Public Library from March 30–April 6, 2019. See the full list of classes and register through the calendar at bocalibrary.org.

The Boca Raton Public Library provides outstanding library services, resources, and programs that meet the educational, recreational, cultural, and informational needs of library users in its two locations.