BOCA RATON PUBLIC LIBRARY TO HOST FINANCIAL LITERACY CLASSES
FOR MONEY SMART WEEK, APRIL 4–11, 2020

BOCA RATON, FL (March 10, 2020) – The Boca Raton Public Library is pleased to participate in the national initiative, Money Smart Week, with a series of classes to empower consumers with the knowledge and skills to make better informed personal financial decisions. “Originally coordinated by the Federal Reserve Bank of Chicago, Money Smart Week began in 2002 to promote economic and financial education,” notes Sally Clark, Instructional Services. “We are proud to host our ninth year of programs surrounding the key pillars of saving, spending, investing, and planning for your financial future.” Classes will be held all week at both locations. Highlights include:

Know Your Health Insurance: Using Your Policy to Save Money and Avoid Costly Pitfalls

Learn how to understand and use your health insurance policy effectively to navigate the labyrinth of health care costs, billing and insurance denials.

What You Need to Know About the Home Buying Process

Get on the right track for obtaining your dream of owning a home or upgrading your current home.

Improve Your Homeowner’s Insurance IQ

Learn how the age of construction, wind mitigation, security systems, or a new roof impact homeowners’ insurance premiums.

Focus on Special Needs Children and Adults

Learn about the medical, personal, and financial challenges of adults and children with special needs.

What’s My Year? Making the Most of Your Social Security

Learn how benefits are calculated, changes in taxation, and how to plan for a consistent income.

The Home Stretch: Seven Essential Areas to Evaluate Before You Retire

Identify hurdles to overcome in the decade before you retire, as well as prudent strategies to help ensure your financial independence for the long run.

Preparing for the Unexpected: Designing Your Estate Plan for the 21st Century

Explore core fundamentals of designing a sound yet flexible estate plan while incorporating advanced trust, tax and probate minimization strategies.

Mark your calendar to participate in Money Smart Week classes at the Boca Raton Public Library from April 4–11, 2020. See the full list of classes and register through the calendar at bocalibrary.org.

The Boca Raton Public Library provides outstanding library services, resources, and programs that meet the educational, recreational, cultural, and informational needs of library users in its two locations.
