City of Boca Raton Code of Ordinances for a home based occupation with the nature of the business described as _____

1. Prior to issuance of a certificate of use and as continuing operational standards, home occupations shall comply with the following:
2. No person shall be employed in a home occupation who is not a permanent domiciliary resident of the dwelling unit in which the home occupation exists.
3. The floor area within a dwelling unit devoted to a home occupation shall not exceed 25 percent of the gross floor area of the dwelling unit excluding porches, garages, carports, and other areas which are not considered living area.
4. The activities of a home occupation shall occur entirely within the dwelling unit, excluding accessory structure such as garages, carports and sheds.
5. There shall be no external evidence of the existence of a home occupation within a dwelling unit. Signs, displays, off-street parking areas other than driveways normally required for residential use, or other advertising of any kind are prohibited.
6. No goods or services of any kind shall be sold or transferred to a customer, consumer or client on the premises of a home occupation, excluding computer or related electronic technology, facsimile machine, telephone and/or United States Postal Service or private postal transactions.
7. A home occupation shall not create noise, vibration, glare, fumes, odors, dust, smoke or electro-magnetic disturbances. No equipment or processes shall be used which create visual or audible interference in any radio or television receiver located nearby. No chemicals or chemical equipment shall be used, except those that are used for domestic or household purposes.
8. Vehicular and pedestrian traffic shall not be generated by a home occupation in a greater volume or a different vehicle type than the traffic typical in a residential neighborhood in the city.
9. Home occupation business deliveries or pickups of any kind required or scheduled by and made to the premises of a home occupation shall not exceed 1 business delivery or pick up per day.
10. The city shall have the right reasonably to inspect the premises upon which the home occupation is conducted to insure compliance with the foregoing standards, and to investigate complaints, if any, from neighbors.
11. Violation of standards or conditions deemed a Code violation. Failure by a home occupation to comply with the standards of this section and with the conditions imposed by the department shall be deemed a violation of this Code and may result in a suspension or termination of the certificate of use.
12. Appeals. An applicant for certificate of use whose application is denied for failure to meet the standards set forth in this section, who objects to any conditions imposed by the department, or whose certificate of use for home occupation is suspended or revoked, may appeal the reasonableness of any to the zoning board of adjustment which may direct that certificate of use be issued with or without conditions or may modify, add to or delete the imposed conditions.
