

KidSpeak, a children’s language-learning software program, is available now through Transparent Language Online and your Boca Raton Public Library card. Learn English, Spanish, French, German, Italian and Chinese (Mandarin.)

Here’s how you get to it:

bocalibrary.org > Digital Library > Research and Online Learning > scroll down to Transparent Language > log in to your Transparent Language account (or create one).

When you get to “choose a language to learn,” pick any of the entries under English, Spanish, French, German, Italian or Chinese. Once you land on the starting page for that language, you will see the link for KidSpeak (pictured below). Then just click and go!
